Chapter 1 by Totally Olive

The wind howled through the window. The girl sat huddling her knees waiting for the storm to pass over. It would be hours before someone would come and find her. What if no one came at all. She feared the worst. Hours passed by and she fell asleep in the cabin she found in the forest on her walk.

"Dear god please help me" She said out loud to herself as a bolt of lightning struck the ground. She was terrified, scared for her life. But what could she do. Go out during the storm. She was wearing her favorite pink tank top and shorts with a pair of black converse. She decides to stay inside and explore the cabin.

"Maybe there will be a bed somewhere!" She said to herself.
